Visual Edge, Inc. Appoints New General Manager of Managed IT Services

Visual Edge, Inc. has appointed Jason Bowra as General Manager of Managed IT Services.

Canton, OH — March 30, 2021 — Today, Visual Edge, Inc. announced the hiring of Jason Bowra as general manager of managed IT services for the growing Visual Edge IT™ business.

In this key role, Bowra will be responsible for leading the technical support, operations and service delivery functions, as well as the sales support functions for Visual Edge IT. He will be a lead executive as we manage our goals for revenue growth and will move Visual Edge IT toward optimal performance creating superior customer experience.

“Jason is a great addition to our growing managed services business,” says Brian Frank, chief operating officer for Visual Edge, Inc. “Adding Jason’s level of expertise to our staff is consistent with our mission to provide world class office products, service and support to today’s digital office.”

Bowra brings a wealth of experience as a technology solutions and services leader. He was most recently the managing director for Core BTS in Indianapolis, IN. He also served as director for CDW’s global managed services division. There he led teams to achieve significant financial growth and provided for excellent service delivery for customers in four countries. He has also held key leadership positions at Logicalis, Inc. and Fifth Third Bank.

Bowra holds a degree in systems analysis and design from Sheridan College in Ontario, Canada. He lives in Cincinnati, OH with his wife Judy.
